

Canoecopia and Wilderness Resort

Visit the Canoecopia Canoe and Kayak show in Madison, then head to Wisconsin Dells to stay at The Wilderness Resort and have fun in North America's Largest Indoor Waterpark.

Mar. 13-14, 2010

Imagine spending Saturday morning walking through an exhibit of Canoe and Kayaks and attending seminars for serious outdoorsmen. Then Saturday evening racing on a raft, riding a "screamtastic" waterslide, floating to the waves of the Great Wave wavepool or just floating down a lazy river. This can all be yours on this outing.

Canoecopia is a show for canoe/kayak/outdoors people. It has an ongoing exhibit of equipment, equipment suppliers, and outfitters along with multiple seminars. We will allow boys to choose which seminars they want to attend. After the show, we'll travel to the Wilderness Resort in Wisconsin Dells. This resort has a waterpark that is 250,000 square feet with America's Tallest Waterslide, an indoor waterdome where you can tan year round and many other water rides.

Dress in either your Class A or B uniform for the ride and don't forget your swim wear and a towel. We will be staying in a hotel so no typical scouting gear is required (if anyone would like to bring a sleeping bag that is fine). Scouts should bring money for a fast food stop on Saturday morning, for Sunday lunch on the way home as well as other spending money they may require. Saturday lunch, Saturday dinner and Sunday breakfast will be provided by the Troop.

We will be departing from Centennial Park at 6:30 a.m. on Saturday March 13 and dropping the Scouts off at their home later Sunday afternoon. Any questions, please contact Mr. Terry Schacht (375-2353) or Mr. Drew Govek (375-6984).
